An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong. For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have of latey ears been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, of foreign relations has imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given the accents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typography lisplays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those vast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characerized Chinese publications.

With which is incorporated THE CAINA DIRECTORY. This is the THIRTY-FIRST ANNUAL ISSUE,

The DIRECTORY covers the whole of the ports and cities of the Far East, from Penning to Vladivostock, in which Europeans reside. . Not only is the Directory as full and complete n each case as it can be made, but each Colony, Port, or Settlement is prefaced by a DESCRIP-TION, carefully revised each year, some of which will serve as accurate Gurnes for the Tourist, giving every detail in connection with the places, their History, Topography, &c., &c. The Information afforded in these Descriptions alone would suffice to fill an ordinary volume consisting of over Eightry highly interesting articles, pooked with facts concisely set out, and containing statistics of the TRADE of each Country and Port.

The work contains Directories and Descriptions of CHINA Thinanfu Peking.
